17.4.2 Dedicated Courses on Sustainability and the SDGs

Davao Oriental State University (DOrSU) integrates sustainability and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into its academic offerings through dedicated courses and degree programs that address environmental, social, and economic challenges. These learning opportunities equip students with relevant knowledge, competencies, and practical skills to contribute to sustainable development in their respective fields. Through sustainability-focused education, DOrSU reinforces its commitment to producing responsible graduates and advancing the SDGs through teaching and learning.
