1.4.2 Local Start-Up Financial Assistance

DOrSU and the Agricultural Credit Policy Council Plan Financial Services for Farmers and Fisherfolk

On March 5, 2024, DOrSU President Dr. Roy G. Ponce, Vice President Dr. Misael B. Clapano, and Cooperative Development Center Director Ms. Jeni A. Nicolas met with the Agricultural Credit Policy Council (ACPC), led by Mr. Charleston M. Dulay, at the Office of the DOrSU President. They discussed creating programs that promote access to sustained financial services for farmers and fisherfolk in Davao Oriental. ACPC oversees the Agricultural Microfinance Program, which makes sure funds reach the intended beneficiaries in support of the Department of Agriculture's priority programs.

Measure	Value
Partner agency	Agricultural Credit Policy Council (ACPC)
Meeting date	March 5, 2024
DOrSU office involved	Cooperative Development Center
Target beneficiaries	Farmers and fisherfolk

Sources

1. DOrSU, ACPC to create programs on financial services for farmers, fisherfolks: https://dorsu.edu.ph/dorsu-acpc-to-create-programs-on-financial-services-for-farmers-fisherfolks/